Nocturne will track targets that change locations (e.g by simply moving, dashing, blinking) but not those that cover great distances (e.g. Recall, Teleport) in which case he will travel to their most previous location and not deal the damage. There is a range limit in how far he can follow a moving target.

2. Nocturne 3. The Lie Nocturne is ok. It's slow-paced, and I don't mean that negatively. It's vibe-y and tense. There isn't a lot of explanation at any point. They keep things pretty vague with a slow build. It is quite well-acted. Some of the directing choices are interesting. Some of the plot points are pretty heavy-handed.
